ABOUT THE AREA

Lakeridge grew up around LakeRidge Country Club, beginning in 1977 as Lubbock's first planned golf-course community. Winding streets, rear-entry garages on paved alleys, and homes on roughly quarter-acre lots give the neighborhood its look, with some homes backing to fairways and water.

Most homes date to the late 1970s through the 1990s. The country club is private, with membership sold separately, and shopping along 82nd Street, 98th Street and Slide Road is a few minutes away.
